LIBERTY MUTILATE

The company that stages auto accidents

Hoo Boy! This is gonna be a gory one!

THIS ACCIDENT NEVER HAPPENED! It was staged by us to catch your beady little eyes . . . so we can sell you some insurance. The way we figure, everybody has a little bit of sadism and a little bit of masochism in them. First we grab the sadist in you with a gory accident scene, and then we appeal to the masochist in you by insidiously implying that this mess could easily have happened to you. Then, when you're good and scared, we make our pitch. You'd be amazed at how much insurance we've sold lately using this great ad campaign. Incidentally, here's how Liberty Mutilate stages an auto accident: ■ First, we visit a "Used Car" lot and pick up a beat-up old second-hand car — cheap. ■ Then we drive it out to a likely spot, and smash it into a tree, or a wall, or another beat-up old second-hand car. ■ Next, we add a few finishing touches with sledge hammers and crow bars. ■ Then, we hire some actors, bandage them up, squirt ketchup all over them, and pose them around the phony wreck. And finally, to cover us, because "location shots" often run into legal difficulties, we insure the entire crew with some reliable company — like "All-State".

VITAL FEATURES

PARENT PICTURES5

MAD imagines the kind of "parent pictures" a baby could take and carry in his diaper to show to the boys down at the nursery.

TOP NEWS STORIES OF 196210

MAD gazes into a crystal ball, previews '62's top news stories before they happen and succeeds in making a glass of itself.

THE DENTIST14

Our white-coated friends with their drills get the "needle" in this article expressing our sentiments: mainly "Yanker, Go Home!"

ADULT MODEL BUILDING KITS21

For satiric purpose, most MAD articles pull things apart. Here's one article, however, which shows how to put things together.

PADDED MAGAZINE STORIES27

To a magazine writer who gets paid by the word, we say: Never mind what the Wordsworth, the sentences are much too Longfellow!

CAPSULED DESCRIPTIONS32

A capsuled description is often better than the TV show itself, just as this capsuled description is better than the article!

TV ADS WE NEVER GOT TO SEE36

We bought a cheap spread about a famous margarine TV ad. Now we wonder if we'd've been better off with an expensive spread.

LESS VIOLENT TV SHOWS42

If excessive violence on TV is removed completely, the only thing left with any solid impact will be Mitch Miller's downbeat.

WE TOOK A DIVE!

PICTURE OF THE ISSUE

The photograph of Mrs. Llewellyn Thompson and her children being greeted by Premier Khrushchev in your December issue was far beyond even your flimsy bounds of good taste in humor. I believe your readers could be spared such—and those effected (sic) apologised (sic) to.

Bad Taste or Startling Awakening

You are to be congratulated on your inside back cover in the December issue. To many, the picture of Premier Khrushchev greeting little Miss Cherry Thompson was familiar. But your caption was priceless. It clearly demonstrates that behind all his smiles and sweet talk, there is one main thought in Mr. K's mind. And whether or not we'd like to admit that anyone would want to harm that darling little girl—and darling little girls the world over—that very fact remains before us. Thank you, MAD, for a startling awakening to the reality of Mr. K.

SPOCKING OF PICTURES DEPT.

Among the shutterbug set, new parents are perhaps the most snap-happy of all! From the day their new baby is born, the proud Mommy and Daddy are constantly photographing him... so that they can compile a photo album showing all the important events in Baby's early years of life—

However, we figure that the most amusing scenes of infancy are those seen from the baby's viewpoint! So let's look at a collection of "Baby Pictures," and at the same time see what kind of an album might result—

THE PARENTS' "BABY PICTURES"

When we first saw our baby through the nursery window, we were delighted! We couldn't believe this little bundle of joy was really ours!

Here's Mommy and our new baby being driven home from the hospital! Baby just can't wait to get home!

Here's "Baby" with Doctor Fuddle, the Obstetrician who delivered him!

THE BABY'S "PARENT PICTURES"

When i first saw my folks making faces through the nursery window, i was disgusted and miserable! i couldn't believe this nest of clods was really my family!

Here's my idiot daddy trying to drive, and take pictures at the same time! i was lucky i got home alive!

Here's "Daddy" when Doctor Fuddle, the Obstetrician, delivered his bill!

THE PARENTS' "BABY PICTURES"

Here's Baby getting acquainted with his big brother and sister. They can't wait until he grows up so they can play with him!

Baby meets his Aunties and Uncles for the first time. It will be a long time before he knows them by name. Left to right they are: Aunt Fanny, Uncle Fred, Uncle Irwin, and Aunt Selma!

Baby gets ready to take his first spoonful of solid food. He looks like he is saying "Yum-Yum!"

THE BABY'S "PARENT PICTURES"

HERE'S MY BIG BROTHER, PINCHING ME AND MY BIG SISTER POKING ME! I CAN'T WAIT UNTIL I GROW UP SO I CAN PUNCH THEM BOTH IN THE MOUTH!

THESE ARE MY AUNTZ AND UNCLEZ, I WON'T KNOW THEIR NAMES FOR A WHILE, BUT LEFT TO RIGHT THEY ARE: "GARLIC BREATH," "CHEAP CIGAR SMELL," "B.O." AND "DIME STORE PERFUME!"

MOMMY GETS MY FIRST SPOONFUL OF SOLID FOOD RIGHT BACK AT HER! SHE LOOKS LIKE SHE IS SAYING "ECCHH!"

This is Daddy looking on proudly the day Baby said his first word. It was "Da-Da"! Daddy claimed he taught it to Baby!

Here's Baby getting his first haircut! He was rewarded with a lollipop because he was very brave and didn't cry a bit.

My, how time flies! Little babies grow up so fast! Our big man is old enough to go to Nursery School already! Here he is with his Mommy on his very first day!

THE BABY'S "PARENT PICTURES"

This is Mommy Looking SHOCKED THE DAY I SAID MY SECOND WORD. I DON'T KNOW WHAT IT WAS, BUT MOMMY CLAIMED I NEVER GOT IT FROM HER!

Here's Mommy WHILE IN GETTING MY FIRST HAIRCUT! THE BARBER GAVE HER A Lollipop TO KEEP HER QUIET BECAUSE SHE CRIED SO!

I KNEW THERE WAS A CATCH TO IT ALL ALONG! I HAD IT MADE FOR THREE YEARS, BUT NOW THEY'VE SENT ME OFF TO WORK IN A SWEAT SHOP! HERE ARE SOME OF MY FELLOW EMPLOYEES!

CLAN SUMMONED BEFORE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18 — Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Sammy Davis Jr., and other members of the "Hollywood Clan" were summoned to appear before the Congressional Committee investigating Juvenile Delinquency today. They were admitted into evidence as typical examples of how children can be affected by violence on TV.

"MM" ENTERS HOSPITAL AGAIN

NEW YORK, March 7—A cure for cancer was found this morning, an unexpected tropical monsoon wiped out Philadelphia this afternoon, and World War III started at 6:00 this evening. Which is why a mere skeleton crew of 2,753 newspaper photographers were all that showed up to take pictures of Marilyn Monroe outside Doctor's Hospital, where she went for treatment of Athlete's Foot.

TRUCKERS GO OUT ON STRIKE

ST. LOUIS, March 30—The Board of Directors of four of the nation's largest trucking firms went on strike today for higher wages and better working conditions.

Teamster Union chief Jimmy Hoffa stated, "Their demands are ridiculous! We'll let them remain as titular heads of their companies, give them an additional 30c an hour, and a 40-hour week! And that's our final offer!"

The striking owners could not be reached for comment.

RUSSIA'S HOPES FOR MANNED MOON-SHOT FADES

MOSCOW, April 12—Russia's hopes to land a man on the moon received a severe setback today when the U.S.S.R. Astronaut team resigned en masse.

"Frankly, we're revolted at the whole idea!" stated noted Russian astronaut Yuri Gagarin. "Not at landing on the moon! But at having to return to Earth to receive more of those wet, sloppy, passionate kisses from Premier Khrushchev!"

AMERICA'S HOPES FOR MANNED MOON-SHOT FADES

CAPE CANAVERAL, April 13 — America's hopes to land a man on the moon received a severe set-back today when stow-away Pedro Lopez hijacked the powerful rocket in its final stage of flight and landed it in Havana, Cuba.

FIVE NEW YORK CITY LANDMARKS DEMOLISHED

NEW YORK, May 2—The Acme Wrecking Company today accidentally demolished The Empire State Building, The Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, The Metropolitan Opera House, The Museum of Modern Art, and Grand Central Station.

Arnold Pivnick, head of the wrecking firm, laughingly commented on the mistake: "Knocking down buildings in New York City these days is like eating peanuts! Once you get started, it's kinda hard to stop!"

MAFIA GROUP RAIDED

EAST ORANGE, May 27—Thirty-six members of the Mafia were surprised by the police in a house in East Orange, N. J., today. The Mafia members had the following in their possession when they were caught: 140 ounces of uncut Heroin, 2000 cases of bootlegged whiskey, $17,000,000 in counterfeit 20's, and eight corpses.

All were released for lack of evidence.

FAMILY GROUP RAIDED

EAST ORANGE, May 28—Three members of the Jenkins family were arrested today in East Orange, N. J., for holding a library book four days overdue.

All were denied bail and imprisoned pending trial, which will be three months from now.

JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY LAUNCHES NEW CONTEST

MANY PRIZES OFFERED

Special to The New York Times

BOSTON, MASS. June 26 — (AP) The John Birch Society today launched its one hundred and thirteenth patriotic essay-writing contest of the year.

Contestants are asked to complete the following sentence: "I think Louis XIV of France and President William McKinley were Communists because..."

Prizes include a life size portrait of Daddy Warbucks, and two hundred autographed photos of Robert Welch as a child.

'63 G.M. MODELS PREVIEWED

DETROIT, September 14—General Motors Corp. offered the public a sneak look at its 1963 automobile line today. Actually, the cars you see here in the picture are not covered with sheets. This is the way the new GM cars will really look. What with current labor contracts, profit sharing plans, high cost of steel, etc., this is the best General Motors will be able to do for '63.

State Teachers Hire New Basketball Coach

CAPITAL CITY, Nov. 15—Getzoff State Teachers College today hired Mervyn Sklar, local book-maker, to serve as basketball coach.

"It will be a lot easier on the boys this way," said Getzoff's President, Edward Hook. "They'll no longer have to make long trips to see the gamblers whenever they want to throw games. Sklar can handle all the details for them directly."

COACH MERVYN SKLAR

"That's right," Sklar agreed, and added, "We're looking forward eagerly to the coming basketball season, during which we're gonna win six games and lose nineteen!"

Shooting Starts On Paul Anka Story

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 25—"The Paul Anka Story," a new film dealing with the long and colorful career of one of America's most beloved and talented show business figures, goes into production today. The movie will run for a total of three minutes on the screen.

Recluse Sisters Found Dead

NEW YORK, December 10—Two elderly spinster sisters were found dead today in a miserable run-down tenement on the Bowery in New York City. After searching the sisters' meager, filthy belongings, the police found nothing but four cents and a broken deposit bottle. To their great shock, there wasn't even a trace of a hidden fortune.

SATURDAY EVENING POST IN NEW FORMAT

PHILADELPHIA, August 30 — The Saturday Evening Post, which has already changed its format sixteen times this year in an effort to build circulation, came out today with its seventeenth format.

This one is a fairly close facsimile of Playboy, with an exciting full-color center fold-out of Norman Rockwell in a bikini bathing suit.

DENTIST

What's the matter, Doc?
You're looking down in the mouth!! Ha-ha-ha...

Ha-ha!

If you should strike oil while you're drilling, Doc... I'll go 50-50 with you! Ha-ha-ha...

Ha-ha!

Hey, Doc! I got a great theme song for you...
"The Yanks Are Coming!"
Ha! ha-ha...

Ha-ha!

..IF MYRNA LOY married ALAN JAY LERNER...

So it shouldn't be a total loss,
Doc... as long as I'm sitting in the chair, give me a little trim!
Not too much off the top! Ha-ha-ha...

Ha-
Ha!

Say! You're a very funny guy!
That's the first time I've heard those jokes...

TODAY!!!

Blah, blah,
blah, blah!

Blah, blah,
blah, blah!

Blah, blah,
blah, blah!

Madam! Will you please shut your mouth...
and open your mouth!!

This child has an abnormal amount of cavities!!

She gets them from eating too much candy! The sugar eats holes in the enamel, encouraging decay!
The trouble with you parents today is: Instead of good old fashioned discipline you use candy as bribery!!

Sit still, sweetheart
Mun't bite the dentist, dear!
Don't play with the water!!
Le'go of the drill!!

If you're a good girl, and let me do my work... when I'm through, I'll give you a lollypop!!

Almost every large school today concentrates on major sports like basketball, football and baseball. These schools have lots of money for the best coaches and players available. But what about the little school that can't come up with the scratch to field a basketball, football or baseball team? What can they do? We'll tell you what they can do! They can concentrate on minor inexpensive sports like ping-pong, bowling and bridge! And the students can show their support singing these . . .

ON YOU KIDNEY CRUNCHERS

(to the tune of "The Song of the Vagabonds")

On you kidney crunchers!
On you rabbit punchers!
Grunt! Grunt! Grunt to victory!
Twist them into jelly!
Stomp upon their belly!
Grunt! Grunt! Grunt to victory!
Crush their necks until they gasp for air!
Gouge their eyes and pull them by the hair!
Smash an organ vital!
And you'll win the title!
Grunt! Grunt! Grunt to victory!

— for Bowling Teams

ROLL THE BALL

(to the tune of "Over There")

Roll the ball!
Roll the ball!
We can win! Groove it in! Roll the ball!
It's a crucial frame, now,
So take good aim, now,
And you will see the pins all fall!
Do not stall!
Get 'em all!
Make 'em crash with a smash 'gainst the wall!
We're in clover!
You knocked 'em over!
And we would have won if you'd let go of the ball!

(to the tune of "The Caissons Go Rolling Along")

Bid a heart!
Bid a spade!
Bid a game that can't be made!
As the Bridge Team goes ruffing along!
Lose a slam
By a trick!
See your partner getting sick
As the Bridge Team goes ruffing along!
For it's a Hi, Hi, Hee!
We've got vulnerability!
Shout out "3 No Trump" loud and strong!
DOWN FOUR!
We will set the pace
As we trump our partner's ace —
And the Bridge Team goes ruffing along!

Bishops away, my lads!
Bishops away!
Move up those knights and pawns
And keep your queen in play-ay-ay-ay!
Castle your king, my lads!
Don't hesitate!
Whoops! Guess we told you wrong!
He's got you there!
He's got you there!

HOBBY HORSE-ING AROUND DEPT.

Today, we are enjoying more leisure time. At least it's available. Most of us aren't really enjoying it. For instance, thousands of red-blooded, adult American males are spending their off-hours putting together "model-building kits". But what are they making? Plastic replicas of battleships, tanks, planes, and like that! It always seemed to us that toy-makers should bring out kits for adults that deal with more realistic, modern-day adult things. What grown-up man would bother with a Sherman tank, if he had the chance to put together a Billiard Parlor? Fortunately one enterprising company, the J. B. Funkhauser Corporation, of Cowsnoks, Ky., is coming out with just such a series of kits. MAD herewith previews this new line of . . .

BALDY

by SIR EDMUND HOLLERLOU and SAM TSENTSEN

We were both veteran mountain climbers, or to put it another way, those who are experienced in climbing mountains. And so, it was with a measure of disbelief, horror, grimaces, nostalgia, corpulence, inadequacy and dejection that word was received at the lower elevations when it came down from the higher elevations.

"And what was that word?" you may rightly ask. The word was that we had somehow lost our footing near the summit and rolled and rolled and rolled and rolled and rolled and rolled and rolled and rolled and rolled.

However, the next year, or perhaps we should say the very next year, we were ready to go at it again, or to put it another way, to try it the second time. This meant that we were more determined than ever to scale Old Baldy, even though we had failed in our first attempt when we lost our footing near the summit and rolled and rolled and rolled and rolled and rolled and

Growing Prize-Winning ROSES

by ARTHUR L. WIMBOGGER

Albert J. Sorenson, of Ham Hank, Mich., is a very, very, very fine rose grower. He has won many, many, many prizes for his extremely lovely and beautiful blossoms, including first place in his division in the Wayne County Fair, which is held annually each year every June near Detroit, a large city in Michigan which is best known for the manufacture of automobiles but also has other industries.

When Mr. Sorenson plants his extremely lovely and beautiful roses, he first digs a big, big, big, big hole. This is to allow extremely ample and adequate room for the roots of the bushes, which are the things that Mr. Sorenson's extremely lovely and beautiful roses grow on. In having his roses grow on bushes, Mr. Sorenson does not differ in a large measure from the thousands and thousands and thousands of other rose growers who dot this large and bountiful land of ours from coast to coast and border to border. However, there

Of course we all know there is nothing like fun when it comes to having a good time. You know that, don't you? I'm sure you all do. I know I do. Fun was made for having good times. That is the nicest part about having a good time. It is so much fun. If you can't have fun while you are having a good time, then what is really the point of having fun? Ha-ha! That is a funny thing for me to say. Don't you think that is a funny thing for me to say? I think it is. Don't you? I do. Now we take scissors and

However, through long years of experience, I have learned that amid the whirl and spiel of everyday life, we must all learn to face each day as it comes, and though the path be hard and the road be rocky, there can come from the depths of each person's soul a hybrid mixture of good and evil that is within each of us to be tolerated, yea, welcomed as that portion of humanity which sets us apart from lower forms of life and makes each of us that little bit of the human species which is so much to be treasured, and that in doing so, we nurture the good in all of us and make ourselves a little ray of sunshine that is to be valued and cherished from within if we are to tolerate the mixture of good and (Cont. on Page 106)

Old Ralph Jibbet had never been a popular coach at Boiling Springs High. He was gruff, head-strong, hyperthyroid, cruel, unjust, moody, statuesque, schizoid, unmanly, driving, indomitable, withdrawn, picturesque, symbolic, gyrating, dejected, fur bearing, juxtaposed, withered, swirling, embattled, swacked, unimpeachable, downtrodden, punctured, but above all, uncluttered. Small wonder that for years his teams had been rotten, overmatched, understaffed, timid, weak-kneed, destructable, paranoid, wall eyed, infallible, smelly, bottled, defrosted, and, in a manner of speaking, nibbling. The whole school was up in arms about the situation, being outraged, indignant, knowledgeable, unwieldy, battling, strong willed, hard bitten, unfurnished, pitiable,

The "Other Woman" in my life
Is television's "Perfect Wife".
From breakfast, when her children rush
Off, saying they've no time to brush,
To afternoon, when in they breeze
With shouts of "Look, no cavities!",
She spends her time advising me
That I, too, can live graciously.
She paints her whole house in one day,
While tightly sheathed in gold lamé;
She mops her floors in four inch heels,
In "half-the-time", the ad reveals;
She wears white gloves, exquisite taste,
To shine her shoes with some new paste;
And still this marvel of our sex
Has leisure left to test "Brand X".
(No wonder her sink's white as new!
I use one can, SHE uses Two!)
I rub and scrub each dirty dish,
While hers comes clean with just a swish.
To top it off, she then demands
That I admire her lovely hands.
At five, she sprays the stale old air,
Puts pipe and slippers by his chair.
Her powder and martinis dry,
She greets her husband. I could cry!
When MINE comes home, his heroine,
In dungarees and double chin,
Sits watching TV's able bride,
And contemplating suicide!

THE IMPERIAL MARGARINE TEST WE NEVER GOT TO SEE #1

Pardon me, Ma'am. I wonder if you would mind making the Imperial Margarine Test!

You mean like they do on Television?

Yes...

OH, YOU DON'T KNOW HOW LONG I'VE WAITED FOR THIS!! Ever since six months ago, when you first started showing the test on TV, I've wanted to do it!

As a matter of fact, I've shopped ten hours a day in different supermarkets, looking for you!

Oh, really? That's a compliment, but...

You know my grocery bill is over $4000 a week!

$4000...!!

Well, you just can't spend ten hours a day in a supermarket and not B U Y something....

I guess that's true....

I'm wanted in five states for not paying my grocery bill!

Well, to....

The "A&P" has my picture on a wanted poster!

That's terrible—

I owe "Piggly Wiggly Markets" $6000....

I wish I could help, but....

Fortunately, I have $2000 worth of empty deposit bottles to return!

Yes, well, if we could proceed with....

Have you ever made this test in Murray's Kosher Delicatessen on Delancy Street?

I don't think so, but....

I figure I'd spent ten lost hours in that place!

Look, lady — you've waited six months to make this test! Can we do it NOW?

I'd love to... only I'm on a "fat-free" diet!

Sure. . . .

And now this one?

Uh-huh!

Now, which one do you think was the high-priced spread?

Do I get into an isolation booth?

No . . . you just answer!

No "thinking music" to build suspense?

NO! Which do you think was the high-priced spread?

This one! My opening bid is 79¢!

Now let's see if you guessed right! This is Imperial! I'm afraid you guessed wrong, Ma'am!

But don't let that bother you! Almost everybody guesses wrong!

Oh, no. . . .

Then I win these two beautiful plates? And this lovely box of crackers. . . . ?

So remember, folks. . . . whether you're home or on vacation — be sure to keep Imperial in your refrigerator!

A home? A vacation? And a refrigerator? All for me?? And I always said these tests were phony!!

Ma'am. . . . you haven't won —

And this gold tie clasp for my husband! — With this matching key chain and watch! — And these cuff links, too! You quiz game MC's have hearts as big as all outdoors!

THE IMPERIAL MARGARINE TEST WE NEVER GOT TO SEE #4

After years of rehashing the same old tired plots in the same old tired settings, television has come up with a new idea. In "The Flintstones," the same old tired plots are rehashed in a brand new setting! (New, that is, if you haven't read "Alley Oop"!) This setting involves cave men from 25,000 B.C. and dinosaurs from 100,000,000 B.C. behaving like us idiots from 1962 A.D. Since "The Flintstones" is so successful, its format is sure to be copied, and soon we'll be seeing more shows cashing in on Maynard, I'm going to get myself a girl!

Let's face it, good buddy, you've been like swinging that club for years, and you never hit nothin' yet!

But, I will! Just watch me!

Look! There's one now . . .

THE "STONE-AGE" TREND ON TV

Nowadays, there are cries from many quarters protesting the excessive amount of violence and bloodshed on television. Sooner or later, these cries will be heeded, and then we'll be seeing scenes like these on —

CHAPTER 6

The other day in a supermarket, we picked up something called a "TV Dinner"—but the manager was watching so we had to put it back. Anyway, it got us thinking. Since "TV Dinners" are frozen meals arranged on a tray that the housewife simply heats and has to serve her family while they're huddled around the television set, it seems to us that the manufacturers are missing a good bet. Mainly, why not offer the public—

Since most of this season's TV schedule was set up long in advance, we have yet to see the vast improvement that's supposed to take place as a result of FCC Commissioner Newton Minow's "Wasteland" cry last Spring. However, we believe that shortly, in an effort to impress Mr. Minow,

THE UNTOUCHABLES

Men, I just got word from our underworld stoolie, Prof. Funk, of Northwestern U. It looks like Frank Nitti's muscling in on Capone's counterfeit book-legging operation on the North Side. The Prof. spotted a phony copy of H. G. Wells' "The Outline of History" at the Chicago Public Library. Let's go. . .

Ness and his men are on their way up! It's a raid!

Quick, you guys! Hide the phony books under the tables! Everybody sit down and pretend you are reading legitimate stuff!

AMERICAN BANDSTAND

That was Fatso Goomba's new hit, "Sloppin' Around!" And now, kids, I want to bring on today's guest... who flew in all the way from La Scala Opera House in Milan, Italy, where she's been knocking them dead... Let's really hear it for — MARIA CALLAS!

...If LANA TURNER married CHARLIE MANNA...

Hi, Maria! Nice of you to take time out to hop over here to Philly to see us. It's a real pleasure to have serious musical artists like yourself, Renata Tebaldi, and Brenda Lee on our shows these days. Kids, Maria's gonna sing one of her big hit songs from... from... Hmm, I can't make out the words on the teleprompter...

That's Lucia di Lammermoor!

most TV shows will start riding the big "intellectual wave." However, there will be one little catch. Namely, even though they'll be going in strong for more culture, the networks still won't give up the basic formats of successful shows. So this is what we are liable to see...

Dino, what do you make of this copy of "The Economic Consequences of Peace" by John Maynard Keynes?

It smells just like the print in that phony copy of Hendrik Willem Van Loon's "The Story of Mankind" which we picked up in that raid on the Dearborn Street Junior High last week!

It's a Toronto print job all right! They're probably smuggling them over the border by truck! I'll phone Washington tonight! Now... LET'S GET TO WORK, MEN!

Of course! Lucy de Lamour! And if my high school French hasn't failed me, that means "I Love Lucy" in English. So kids... here she is... Maria Callas, singing her top hit from "I Love Lucy"—

Thanks, Maria. That sure was a nice tune. And look... if you're ever in Philly again, please drop in. We really dig opera singers here!

Goodbye, children! Goodbye, Mr. Bernstein...
